

2015 AWARDS CRITERIA

Local awards will to be announced each year at the Holiday Party. Winners will be recognized and presented with a plaque.

- 1) Recognition of Achievement – Contractor
- 2) Recognition of Achievement – Associate
- 3) Outstanding Member Award(s)
- 4) Rookie of the Year

Criteria must be met from December 1st through November 30th prior to the December Holiday party. Criteria for receiving these awards are shown below.

RECOGNITION OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

This award will recognize the member company that fulfills all of the following criteria for eligibility. An award will be given in each of two categories of member types, Associate and Contractor. As they are already given credit for their involvement with a plaque each year, Board Members are exempt from receiving the Recognition of Achievement Awards. It is the intention that there would be one Associate and one Contractor recipient for this award each year, however, in the event of a tie; more than one Recognition of Achievement Award may be awarded in any given year.

- 1) Participation in 2 NARI Service Events
These include: NARI exhibitor booth set-up, tear-down, or booth time, Chapter Community Service Projects
- 2) Attendance: must attend at least 80% of the General Meetings (8 of 10 meetings), staying for the meeting in entirety.
- 3) Recruitment: must bring in one new paid member

OUTSTANDING MEMBER AWARDS

This award will be given at the discretion of the Chapter President, with approval from the Awards Committee. If given that year, these awards (maximum number of awards is five per year) are to recognize any member that greatly contributed to the growth or success of the chapter that year.

'ROOKIE OF THE YEAR'

Recognizes the most involved new member for the year, based on points earned per involvement category in the Recognition of Achievement Awards.

